GREETINGS FROM THE PASTOR

LENT AT FIRST CHURCH

While I am personally partial to the seasons of Advent and Christmas, the traditional centerpoint of the Christian year is falls at the end of Lent: Holy Week, including Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter. Special events in our lives usually require preparation. Holy Week is no different. That's why the early church set aside the forty days before Easter (excluding Sunday that are always celebrations of the Resurrection) as a time for prayer, meditation, self-examination and study.

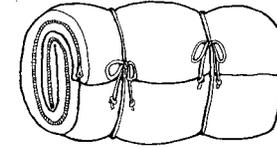

The symbolism of forty days is biblically rich. Immediately we recall, and perhaps at this time of year even identify with, Jesus' forty days of spiritual struggle against temptation in the wilderness. Yet, there is more. Forty days also recalls Noah and his family enduring forty days and forty nights of rain (Genesis 7:4), the Hebrews wandering forty years in the desert (Deuteronomy 8:2, 4), Moses waiting on Mount Sinai for forty days and forty nights (Exodus 24:18), Elijah walking for forty days and forty nights to Mount Horeb (I Kings 19:8), and the forty days that Jonah gave Nineveh to repent (Jonah 3:4). And there are the forty hours that Jesus lay in the tomb before his resurrection.

What all these events linked to forty have in common is that they are times of trial, introspection and preparation for something new to be born—a new attitude, a new hope, and a new relationship with God. To help Christian pilgrims enter into this dark time of transition three practices have been encouraged: fasting (Matthew 6:16-18), almsgiving (Matthew 6:2-4), and prayer (Matthew 6:5-6). These are not performed in order to be seen by others (Matthew 6:1), but rather as private and personal acts that help us to deliberately turn ourselves once again toward God and God's creation.

This season encourages us all through prayer, discipline and study to share again in the great drama of our Lord's ministry, death, and resurrection. We encourage you to prepare at home and in your own way—alone, with families, or with friends. We also encourage you to utilize the worship services and programs that we offer to help you in your Lenten journey.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, this year on February 10. We will have dinner in Fireside and then a service of worship in the Chapel at 7. Join us for this intimate communion service. We will also have two Lenten Suppers and program that will be child friendly on Wednesdays February 24th and March 9th. We will eat at 6pm with the program beginning at 6:45. We will play some B-I-B-L-E Wheel of Fortune; don't miss Sharon Chamberlain as Vanna White. This will be a fun, challenging and educational experience for all ages.

One way or another, let us all engage the great drama of our Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection this Lenten season.
In Christ's love, Kendrick

THANKS FROM THE SEXTON

I would like to thank all the members of our congregation, staff, Rev Norris, and Bill Furman for making my start, at First Church, a tremendous new beginning. Your outpouring of support makes it a blessing to make the long commute to work every day. Every day, as I walk the building, I'm finding new rooms, closets, and places I never knew existed. Hopefully I will come to grips with the keys and learn what key opens what lock. I pledge to you to work my hardest and be dedicated to this great facility and to you as members. At any time stop by or give me call to let me know how I can better this Church for your usage or worship experience. My e-mail is facilities830@gmail.com. Thank you again for your confidence in myself and I look forward to working on our church as we prepare for the future together. Glenn Anderson

SEARCH COMMITTEE

The committee is hard at work and has begun the search process. First steps for the committee are creating a church profile. While we have done much work as a congregation to determine our strengths, weaknesses and where we see ourselves in the future, we may still need your help. You may be approached by a committee member for information regarding committees you may have served on or currently serve, future and past expectations, etc... If at any time you have questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Chairs, Mike Duncan or Beth Sticca. Please feel free to approach committee members as well - Mike Chamberlain, John Gemmell, Mike Gorzoch, Margo Hunt, Sylvia Lucas, June McCarthy, Deborah Ortega, Don Robertson & Arlyd Munoz-Snyder.

THE OSGOOD FOOD PANTRY . . . NEEDS AND THANKS!

To date, thirty-six cans of soup have been collected; along with many bags of other grocery items. Thank you to all!

February will be "Pasta and Sauce" month. Some ideas are mac and cheese, spaghetti and spaghetti sauce, any boxed pasta and packaged or canned pasta. As always, any and all donations are welcome Sunday and during office hours.

In a letter received from the Prudence Crandall Center Director of Development, Carolyn Jasper, wrote, "On behalf of Prudence Crandall Center, thank you for the wonderful donation of holiday coffee cups beautifully filled with goodies, as well as the handmade hats for the clients we serve! What a caring way to bring joy to others in need during this season of giving. Your thoughtfulness demonstrates to our families that the community supports them during this very difficult time in their lives, helping ease the path as they move forward to a new life, free from abuse. We are so grateful to all of our friends at First Church!"

THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS SPECIAL OFFERINGS:

A check in the amount of $342 was sent to Back Bay Mission from the Thanksgiving Offering. We received the following letter from them:

"Thank you for your generous gift to Back Bay Mission! Your gift to Friends of the Mission makes it possible to meet the most urgent needs of the poor and marginalized of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Your gift is at work helping a homeowner stay in their home, providing a homeless person with an apartment, giving someone enough food to make it to their next paycheck, and many other ways. Most importantly, your gift is at work making sure that Back Bay Mission is here to provide a safe and welcoming environment to everyone who comes through our doors. Thank you for partnering with us through your generous gift. We – and those we serve – are ever grateful."

Grace and Peace, Rev. Alice Graham, Executive Director

P.S. Thank you for your continuing support of Back Bay Mission!

A check in the amount of $420 was also sent to Family Promise, from our Christmas Eve Offering. Family Promise is a national program that offers transitional housing and a broad range of services for homeless families. In the past year, there has been an ongoing effort to create a "Family Promise" network in our area with the support and backing of the faith community in the Greater Hartford area.

Thank you all for your generous giving during the holiday season!

PRAYER SHAWLS

Mike Leona, a section leader in the choir until recently, was given a prayer shawl after the death of his grandfather. In a thank you note the Leona Family wrote "Thank you so much for your kind expression of sympathy and for the prayer shawl you gave Michael. He has shared it with his grandmother, who finds it very comforting."

Also remember that our prayer shawl ministry is an outreach ministry. Yes, prayer shawls are for those in our congregation who are ill or grieving. And, they are also for people outside our membership. So if you have a family member, a friend, or a co-worker who you think might appreciate a soft, warm symbol of God's love please let me know and I will get you one of our beautiful prayer shawls. ~ Kendrick

MEN'S BREAKFAST, SUNDAY JANUARY 31ST

Following the Apostle Paul's call to "Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep," (Romans 12:15), we have greeting cards for you to write to someone who has been mentioned during our "Prayers of the People" or in "Our First Church Family" or anyone you would like to reach out to. Cards, pens, and an address book are available during Coffee Hour, on a card table in the Fireside Room. Just place your cards in the Sunshine Post Office box and they will be stamped and mailed out on Monday. This is an easy way to show you care. Please challenge yourself to write at least one card a month. As Jesus made it abundantly clear, as we do it for another so we do it for him. ~ Kendrick
